MINE STRIKE IS ENDED AT DRUMHELLER

No Trace Found of Culprits Who Attempted to Dynamite Mine

CALGARY, Nov. 1.—The strike of the Canadian Mine Workers in the Drumheller valley was definitely called off at a meeting of the striking miners held in the authors' hall here Monday afternoon. The men reported for duty on Tuesday morning and it is expected that the mines which have been affected by the strike will be working normally again within a short time.

authorities have as yet failed to find any clues to the culprits who made an unsuccessful attempt to dynamite the mine at the 10-15 mile road and the shaft extending to the 10-15 mile road.

Inspector Harrison, of the A. P. mounted police, stated that no arrests had been made since the dynamite was found. He said that the dynamite was found in a box containing eight, only a few of the boxes at the mine were found. ## YOUTH SHOTS WOMAN IN ARM WITH AIR GUN

Few Serious Complaints Arise Out of Halloween Pranks

Well-spread rumors, advances on front lawns, fences minus gates and a city full of strident tempers mark the passing of Halloween, which was celebrated with the usual pranks of children and adults. No serious property damage was reported.

The only serious complaint turned in to this city police was that by Mrs. Susan Coadman, 1444 21st street, who stated that as she stepped out on the back porch of her house at 11 p.m. she was struck on the arm by a shot from an air rifle. Police did not locate the culprit.

Donna Alice Adams, an eleven-year-old girl, was also injured when she was struck on the arm by a shot from an air rifle. She was also injured when she was struck on the arm by a shot from an air rifle.

Handfuls of storekeepers all over the city are cleaning their windows. Halloween, celebrated with the usual pranks of children and adults. No serious property damage was reported.

The last dynamite charge in the city was exploded at the 10-15 mile road. The dynamite was found in a box containing eight, only a few of the boxes at the mine were found.

Corliss Faces Trial for Two Murders

Trained Bees Protect Gate From Franks

Dogs are an old-fashioned safeguard against hallows' pranks, but here a new protection first used successfully by one Edmonton citizen Monday evening.

He displayed a hive of bees and placed near a gate he feared some youths had designed upon. The youths, who looted the comfortable looking box, and disappeared suddenly.

Dogs were their trait at children, but the bees were a welcome surprise, said the citizen. "My cat was all right this morning."

On his first visit to Western Canada, Mr. J. H. Peacock, of London, Eng., a director of the London and North Western Railway, arrived in Edmonton Monday morning.

4 TUBES, DE LUXE

LONDON, Nov. 1.—A moving story of the perils of those seeking their livelihood on the deep, a story whose pathos is heightened fish overpopulation, was told Monday in connection with the discussion that such overstock with terrible results to the Irish fishermen of the coast might be the result of a storm was of usual occurrence. It swept the British Isles and took all told, by land and sea, a large number of lives. The figures are not yet available. The fishermen are now in a bad way, as they are arriving piecemeal, and it is a day before they will be home. The boats at Lloyd's are casualties, and the shipping losses is still incomplete.
